

JOB POSTING
Course Instructor – Fall Position 2017

JFG1610H – Sustainable Forest Management and Certification

Course Description: The field and practice of sustainable forest management and certification are rapidly evolving. This course is designed to provide an overview of sustainable forest management policies and programs from a provincial, national and international perspective. Through the implementation of such policies and programs, various outcomes should be achieved (ecological sustainability, biodiversity conservation, economic stability and community longevity). Historical perspectives, current initiatives and future opportunities are reviewed. The successes achieved by the implementation of such a program are measured through the use of criteria and indicators and certification processes. The ISO, SFI, the Canadian Standards Association, the Forest Stewardship Council and other certification processes are studied.

Estimate of the course enrolment: Approximately 30-40 graduate students

Estimated TA Support:

Sessional dates of appointment: 1 September 2017 – 31 December 2017; please note that this position includes the completion of any course work and grading not completed by 31 December 2017.

Salary: $7,385.12 (excluding vacation pay)

Qualifications: Preferably a Ph.D. degree or extensive experience in forest conservation; teaching experience an asset.

Brief description of duties: Prepare and deliver lectures, organize guest speakers, maintain course notes and readings, organize and lead a field trip, set and mark course assignments, which may include mid-term, essay and final examination or other assignments, with the support of a TA; compile, record and submit final marks. Be available to students through regular office hours.
