JOB POSTING
Sessional Lecturer – Spring Position 2020

FOR418H1/FOR1585H – Urban Forest Conservation Field Course

Course description: The Urban Forest Conservation Field Camp will consist of five days examining urban forestry issues in the GTA and 5-7 additional days visiting municipalities that may range from southern and eastern Ontario, to Quebec as well as the northern USA. Topics will include urban forest inventories, nursery production, arboricultural techniques, urban woodland management, urban forest health, urban forest administration, urban dendrology and urban forestry research. Note: Summer session course/activity. This course also requires planning of the session well in advance of the class schedule dates.

Estimated enrolment: Approximately 30 undergraduate and graduate students.

Estimated TA support: Yes

Class Schedule: May 1, 2020 – May 20, 2020 (Exact dates TBD)

Sessional dates of appointment: May 1, 2020 – June 30, 2020; please note that this position includes the completion of any course work and grading not completed by August 31, 2020.

Salary: $8489.67 (inclusive of vacation pay)

Qualifications: Extensive professional experience in urban forestry and preferably a Ph.D. degree; teaching experience an asset

Brief description of duties: Prepare and deliver lectures, maintain course notes and readings on Quercus, set and mark course assignments, including analysis of an urban tree inventory dataset. Evaluate student presentations, reports, possible final exam or other assignments, with the support of a TA. Compile, record and submit final marks. Be available to students via email prior to the formal course start and daily during the intensive two weeks in the field.

To apply, please submit a covering letter, curriculum vitae and names for two possible references to:

Laura Lapchinski
John H. Daniels Faculty of Architecture, Landscape, and Design
University of Toronto
33 Willcocks Street, Toronto, ON M5S 3B3
Email: laura.lapchinski@utoronto.ca

Applications must be submitted by 4:00PM Wednesday, August 14, 2019

This job is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 3 Collective Agreement.

cc: CUPE 3902 (180 Bloor Street West, Ste. 902, Toronto M5S 2V6)
Yared Mekonnen (for posting on Forestry’s website)
Faculty Financial Office